

Town Reports of Boothbay, Boothbay Harbor, Southport, and Edgecomb

Over the years, the society has collected seven feet of Boothbay, Boothbay Harbor, and Southport town reports from various donors. Town reports have been published annually since the 1870s to the present. The early ones provide information on various topics, including: the towns' expenditures, individuals paid by the town for services, paupers supported by the town, and the state of the schools; many decades of reports list births, marriages, and deaths. In 1891 Boothbay Harbor started listing all taxpayers who owed a poll tax or real or personal estate tax; Boothbay did the same in 1921. Thus, residency can be determined through consulting them.
